THE SEMI-WEEKLY EDITION Is published every Wednesday and Saturday, and dur-ing the session of the Legislature, three times a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at Four Dolars a year, payable always in advance.

THE WEEKLY EDITION always to be paid in advance.

$1 in advance will pay for six months.

Weekly, during the Legislative sessions.

$5 will pay for three copies one year. * Persons remitting $10 in advance, free of postage, shall have three copies of the Semi-Weekly one year. $2 will pay for six months. $1 will always be charged for the Tri-Weekly, and 50 cents for the

The State Convention.

The question has been raised as to whether, under the vote given at the late election, as prescribed by the law of last winter, a convention for the amendment of the Constitution of the State can be legally called.

In reply to the objections which have been made, sions and the reasons for them.

was intended to afford to the electors of the State an and now let their editors and politicians who fabrivention, according to the mode prescribed by the stigma which the tacit admission of Captain Tipton Constitution. It appears by the election returns that himself, of the untruth of the charge, unquestionably a majority of those who have voted upon the question, shows them to be obnoxious to. have decided in favor of calling such a convention.

The provision of the Constitution is as follows: held for governor, there shall be a poll opened, in on the 30th July. However, to oblige an acquaintance, we insert it—premising that we don't know why Capt. Tieron Which the qualified electors of the State, shall express, has not long since publicly branded the nose-pulling and by vote, whether they are in favor of calling a Con- other stones as false, for he certainly knows them to be so. vention or not; and if there shall be a majority of Gov. WHITCOME-CAPT. TIPTON-PETTY FALSEHOOD.-Convention, the governor shall inform the next gene- to the effect that Capt. Tipton of this place had pulled Gov.

amending the constitution.

Under this provision of the constitution, what maupon the question of the convention.

votes given at the August election, for there is no rapidly beginning to discover his merits : such expression in the language used. It must be "Since we must have some Locofocos elected to one of the other two, for they only are mentioned in our State Legislature, it gratifies us to announce the the constitution,—that is, the election for governor, state Senate from the county of Marion. Mr. S. is a of purchasing. Under this restriction, of course the leading articles and the poll opened for votes upon the question of the young man, and so far as our knowledge extends, this editor of the Wabash Express is excepted.

for Governor. The Governor's election is mentioned education. He is not of that rabbid cast of politithe subject matter of the section-the very thing un- county have called him to fill."

fer to the election held for governor. the Constitution is that a convention shall be called, forever. We are unfortunate enough to differ with with especial interest. Truth is stranger than ficcast their votes in its favor. The language is-"if point. He says the new license begins to take efthere shall be a majority of all the votes given at fect in the year 1842, and therefore runs to 1863, ucation, the Mind, Insanity, &c. &c. shall inform," &c. It seems to be absurd to suppose tion will expire. We hold, on the contrary, that the or against a convention; or that a majority of votes twenty-one years, and of course expires in 1859, all the votes given," &c., must mean a majority of the senator from Missouri. We deny that there were all the votes given on the question of the convention, two Hudson Bay Companies, and two charters, and Another view of the subject is, that the constitu- positions.' tion speaks of "a majority of the votes given," &c. Senator Haywood has published, through the -not of a number equal to a majority of the votes "Union," a long address to his constituents, explanagiven at the election for governor. There is no pro- tory of his singular course upon the Tariff question. vision in our constitution or laws that a majority of It is a most lame and impotent affair. He excuses votes given for one purpose shall control the effect of himself for resigning, among other reasons, because votes given for another purpose. The rule is that he "believed the bill was unwise and full of mischief every measure shall be carried or lost by the number to the Republic." If he did so believe, it was his imof votes given upon that measure. So for the elec- perative duty to vote against it, and not to shun that tion of officers. We have no quorum of electors at duty and its responsibilities, by resigning. At the constitution, a less number than a majority of all the ing in principle, he was altogether wanting in firmelectors may call a convention. So a less number ness and independence. Those who act from mercethan such a majority may do so by the construction nary motives, or from notions of expediency instead we combat. The candidate who receives the highest of principle, will of course endeavor to palliate Mr. number of votes for Governor is elected, although not Haywood's unjustifiable position. Not so those who one tenth the number of votes should be given for are governed by their convictions of what is RIGHT. Governor which are given for Lt. Governor. A case may happen in which the number of votes given for a convention shall be equal to a majority of all the TAIN ITS PRINCIPLES. - The best way to make these the votes given in the election for governor, and yet, not principles of the people, is by discussing them fairly equal to the number of votes given against such a before the people, with as little appeal to passion as convention. What construction should be given to possible. And the first element of party success is ture a right to prevent the convention by refusing to the country. Democratic principles, and Democratic pass the necessary laws ! There is in the Legisla- measures fairly corresponding with them, and the cool ture no such right or power. It is their duty to pass judgment of the people on them, will make the Demothe law. But they may nevertheless refuse to pass cratic party successful. If this policy cannot give behalf of the Baptist Church on Pleasant Run, pubit, and prevent the regular mode of holding the con- them the ascendancy, we have no faith in any other lished in our last, the most important of which are vention as prescribed in the Constitution. The right means. The history of the Democratic party in this the following: of the people, under the 2d section of the 1st article State, conclusively proves the truth of these axioms. of the Constitution, still remains unimpaired. The Owen, should read-"And also that a Legislature may refuse to obey the instructions of the James Brown has been convicted of robbing the mail, number of the members have been doing something, fatiguing to the soldier. people and the injunctions of the Constitution, but in and sentenced to ten years confinement in the Ohio and that publicly, and not as brother Chandler would such a case the people may proceed to hold the con-penitentiary. Brusman, the P. M. at Little York, vention and adopt such rules and regulations as the Montgomery county, was also sentenced to ten years printed, the words and not were accidentally left out, authorities of that place are putting a new fence overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with which it closed, are full of sincere repentance and faith in Christ, expresses overwhelming calamity with the christ overwhelming exigency may call for. According to our view, the call for a convention is Totten, the stage driver between Xenia and Dayton, put after the word it. as decided and peremptory by the vote at the late where the mail was robbed, was sentenced for six upon the question. A majority of t e who take spectable connexions in Indianapolis.

The Indiana State Sentinel.

Published every Thursday. 7

any interest in the matter have said that there are A Rare Chance. abuses in our Constitution which they wish to reform. Under the pre-emption law passed at the late ses-BY AN EX-REPORTER OF THE STATE SENTINEL.

Pulling." We introduce the following extract from the Logansport "Democratic Pharos," of August 26, under the above conspicuous head, because we wish to call the attention to the statements here made, not only of our own citizens, but of those also who may come into official and personal contact with Captain Tipton elsewhere. We know not how he may interpret the obligations which the laws of personal honor and gentlemanly feeling should impose upon every man under such circumstances, but it seems to us that no and in making up our conclusions on the subject, we consideration-not even party success-should induce have not been governed by our own judgment alone, a gentleman to suffer his name to be used to give but have been sustained by able lawyers whom we force and effect to a base and infamous falsehood. It have consulted on the subject. Thus fortified, we may strike Captain Tipton's mind differently. At proceed to notice objections, and to state our concluso far as their own party was concerned,-for of The law of last winter, in relation to the subject, course no Democrat ever for a moment believed it; opportunity to determine in respect to holding a Con- cated it and aided in giving it currency, take the

> From the Democratic Pharos, August 26. The falsehood to which the following paragraph alludes

all the votes given at such election, in favor of a Our readers will remember that story that was so industriously circulated in various shapes, just before the election, ral assembly thereof, whose duty it shall be to pro- W.'s nose at New Albany-that he had rubbed his fist under vide by law for the election of the members of the his nose!-that he had choked him! &c. &c. Contrary to the expectation of some worthles, Gov. W. was able to reach Convention, the number thereof, and the time and here a few days before the election, where Capt. Tipton then place of meeting; which law shall not be passed unless agreed to by a majority of all the members was ever before assembled here on a similar occasion. In elected to both branches of the general assembly," remarking upon and disproving the numerous falsehoods affoat in relation to his alleged treatment of the volunteers, the Governor referred to the above story in relation to him-This portion of the Constitution does not confer, self and Capt. T. After pronouncing it basely false, he re- of that description, in one of the "largest" towns of the Lord said unto Cain, where is Abel thy beforehand for the act, of which she absolved me enlarge, or restrict any right of the people to assem- thing short of urgent business had prevented Capt. Tipton, advertisement a puff, from which it may be suspected ble in convention, by delegates, for the purpose of since his return, from publishing a denial of the falsehood the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from slight wound. "As soon as I am dead," she added, altering or amending the form of government. It is in the same paper where it first occurred, as an act of justice, and to vindicate his own character—that a moment's reflecmerely directory, as a mode of proceeding, and a matter of convenience. It is intended to secure matter of convenience matter of convenience matter of convenience. It is intended to secure matter of convenience matter matter of convenience matter o lence, in such proceeding. Yet it is the rule by -that it was no part of his (the Governor's) business then to say whether he would have permitted such an insult if it which the people have determined to proceed in had been offered, and if any one wished to know, there was age these a-lack-a-dasical times!— Wabash Express. wetting our guns, though we all looked very salty an easy way of finding out. We have heard nothing of the jority is required to call a convention? Some tell us WILLIAM STEWART.-We find the following nothat it requires a majority of all the votes given at tice of Mr. Stewart, in the Salem News of August 21. editors, Whig or Democrat, who would be guilty. our tents upon the banks of the Rio Grande. It was And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever where you can examine it at your leisure." The the August election. Others say, a majority of all Considering that the compliment comes from an inthe votes given for governor; and others again, that veterate Whig, it is strong testimony in favor of Mr. it requires only a majority of all the votes given Stewart's personal merits. We copy the notice for the benefit of those who turned up their noses so It appears to be plain, that this provision of the superlatively at "our candidate for the Senate," constitution has no reference to a majority of all the before the election; but who since his election are chivalric nose-pulling story since.

election of our old friend, WM. STEWART, to the is the first time he has ever run for office. He is a We think it equally plain, that the majority spoken miller by trade, and to his credit be it said, that by The election to decide upon calling a convention is do honor to the station which the people of Marion as follows:

"a majority of all the votes given at such election, in made in secret session of the Senate on the Oregon kind in the United States, or perhaps in the known wormy pilot bread was given us to eat. They did favor of a convention," &c., are used. Does "such treaty, This speech observes the Union, "explains world, founded on general observation and truth. election" mean the one under contemplation in the with great force the true meaning of the convention section, or the one casually referred to ! We think it as it regards the navigation of the Columbia. It de- none written by an insane man. This contains a short of the noble and manly spirit of the volunteers, and would be doing violence to the language, or be a nies, and we are happy to agree with the Senator, bistory of the author's case-giving the general causmere quibble, to make the words "such election" re- that the convention does convey to the Hudson Bay es which produced the disease on him individually; endure any hardship for the success of our arms and Company, and to "all British subjects trading with the manner of treatment and termination of the dis-We conclude then, that the intention expressed in the same," the right of navigating the Columbia ease," &c. The author's personal history will be read only aim. if a majority of those who vote upon the question the senator in one respect, connected with this tion. such election, in favor of a convention, the governor when the rights of navigation under the late conventhat a vote given for a governor, could be counted for second royal grant began in 1838, that it runs for the above general heads. given for a governor could decide the question of a when the right of navigation in the Hudson Bay convention either way. The words-"a majority of Company ceases. Upon another point we differ with we are prepared, if necessary, to make good our very best, we can only say for him, that if not cor-It may be said, that by this construction of the rupt, he displayed great weakness,-and if not want-

(THE BEST WAY TO SUSTAIN A PARTY, IS TO SUSparty union; but there can be no union, except in a Another question which arises is, has the Legisla- faithful adherence to principles in the legislation of

INDIANAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 3, 1846.

Those who voted have considered the subject, and sion of Congress, in relation to the late Miami Reser-Is published every Thursday, at Two Dollars a year, there can be no reasonable doubt that they have fairly vation in this State, one of the best opportunities is expressed the will of the people throughout the State. offered for men of moderate means, that has been ever Captain Tipton of the Mounted Dra- trict of country thirty miles square, in the very heart companies had good luck and lost only a few in cross- tion, I now proceed to the discussion of the subject. of the act on all the various orders of intelligencies pelled them to sell, now ready for the enterprising whose bravery could not be questioned. of this district of country. By the pre-emption law delighted to stand by us even in our greatest perils. community. I shall therefore not stop to prove that whose paths are peace. may hereafter settle on these lands shall have the our two friends by the hand. and sixty acres of land at two dollars per acre. These he left home. now be procured, we are told by those who have visited these lands, are richly worth from eight to ten dolland is celebrated for its fine poplar, walnut, and serious consequences might be the result. We sucthe Supreme Ruler of the Universe; and we as a The provision of the Constitution is as follows:

WART. S, Sec. 1. Every twelfth year after this Constitution is as follows:

Wart. S, Sec. 1. Every twelfth year after this Constitution is as follows:

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when the Bible is of parallel who knew him, presented himself on the Sth ult.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when this splendid prospect is within their reach.

Who are possessed of three hundred and twenty dollars, when the Bible is of parallel who knew him, presented himself on the Sth ult.

When the first provide the standard provide and twenty dollars, when the splendid prospect is within their reach. the line is now in full operation, and when the southern was the reply. "Can't you take less," said the Hoodelity, and therefore I shall not debate with him.

find by the State Sentinel that a "profitable" press barrels of crackers, &c. as well as broken boxes of narrative runs thus:

at this Reserve before they pass Indiana.

why the establishment avertised for sale is not named, up and down the river, carrying provisions, &c. must be obvious to intelligent men; but it can be very | We soon found that our provisions were left behind of, is not the majority of votes given at the election his own exertions, he has given himself a Collegiate the Lunatic Asylum of Tennessee, is now in this city. cians who distract our Legislature and enact laws He offers for sale two works, prepared by himself counter were submitted to without murmurs, well only as a matter of reference, to fix the time of open- which prove to be a curse to the people. He possesses while in the Asylum, which will be read by all with knowing that they could not be avoided—that the ing the poll for votes for and against a convention. They are entitled government had used all the exertions in its power to der consideration. In this connection the words- We publish to-day the speech of Mr. Benton, world: simply to say, Insanity: the only work of the when barrels of damaged sides were opened, and where, generous sympathy and general aid.

THE TARIFF AND THE MECHANICS .- The Bridgeport | works of nature. Farmer has instituted a comparison of the two tariffs, in such matters as relate more particularly to Connecticut; and it may be seen what a tremenduous blow has been given to the principal branches of nanufacturing	ind	astry	in tha	t Stat	e!

Articles.	Present tariff.				New tariff.
Carriages,	*	(*)	30			30
Saddles,			30			30
Harness,			35	- 2		30
Cabinet-ware,	*		30		*	30
Hats-fur,			35	-		50
Hat-bodies, fu	E,		25			30
Hats-wool,		- 4	15			20
Hat bodies, w	ool.		15		2	20
Boots and bootees, men's 31				24	*	30
Shoes, men's			28	-		30
Tin-wate,	*		30		-	30
Castings,			30			30
Broadcloths,			40			30
Blankets, fine		14	25			20
Blankets, coatse		15			20

markets. There is a constant demand for flour, at that might otherwise take place." There is more here immediately in consequence. sense in this than in whole columns of fudge in favor of protection, as they call it.

ERRATA.-Two or three errors of the press oc- Canan. curred in the communication of E. N. Shimer on

A sentence in the ninth paragraph of Mr. Shimer's have it, one or two, and that privately, " As only thirty-five miles north of Indianapolis, and the Fountain Riflemen, got their discharge, on account the public mind on the subject, together with the Let us not be puffed up. Let us not be wise in our northern boundary comes up to the Wabash and Erie of their bad health, the surgeon having certified that course of many leading and influential public jour- own conceits. Let us learn wisdom with meekness canal, at Peru and Logansport. It is only necessary they were unable to do military duty in this campaign. nals, require that the ablest intellects should be called who is the source of all righteousness and truth, whose to look at the map of the State to see the advantages had not been so rapidly declining they would have I argue the question before a professed christian ways are ways of right ways, and every head of a family, or widow, or single man It is hoped that the ravages of disease may be staid, the Author of the universe has a right to govern it; over the age of twenty-one," who is now settled or and that we may again have the pleasure of taking and that the Creator of the human race has a right to lars per acre. A farm can here be purchased, of one besides hauling the tents, cooking utensils, &c., a the individual or nation shall have "filled up the hundred and sixty acres, for three hundred and twenty great number of the soldiers had not yet recovered measure of their iniquity," he invariably brings them paid, if not, they will not be lifted. Can't pay post- out in the Gulf. We succeeded in crossing without when we reached the opposite shore. In a few min-We suppose that the Editor of the Express expects utes the teams halted and we advanced to the shore of to pass off the above as an effusion of wit. We con- the Rio Grande, and looked over into Mexico for the sider it an act of scoundrelism of which there are few first time. Our wagons were unloaded, and we spread every one else likely to be misled by his mean mis- damp, and apparently overflowed with water a portion representations, that he is very much mistaken if he of the year. The soil appeared to be a mixture of supposes we desire to sell the State Sentinel establish- sand and mud. The Rio Grande is a deep muddy ment. So far from that, we intend to keep it while stream, rather narrower than the Wabash at the it is as profitable as it has been and is. The reason mouth. The water taken from it is very good when settled. Several steamboats are constantly running easily ascertained by any honorable person desirous for the want of room in the wagons. Our company only a small quantity of some of the leading articles had been distributed among the men, the balance having been left behind. However, some arrangement INSANITY !- Mr. G. Grimes, formerly an inmate of was made with the Commissary, so that we got some procure more teams, but had failed, and that they were making the best use they could of the wagons 1. A treatise on the most important subject in the already employed. This, however, was not the case complain at such treatment, and said that there was a wrong somewhere, and that people that had eyes "There are other books which treat on Insanity, but ought to be better judges of provisions. I feel proud the honor of our flag; but hardships that are unnecessary, they object to. Their country's weal is their

"Good brethren," &

Sketches in the Camp.

On the 2d of August, we left the mouth of the Rio 2. The Lily of the West. On Human Nature, Ed- opposite Barita. Our encampment is in a thicket of some 1600 years, I am willing to admit that your given to me at different times, up to July last, when This is a miscellaneous collection comprising vari- States are encamped here, and if we all remain here system was the first under which man was tried advance of $5000, making in the whole, about $11,000; ous matters of interest besides those alluded to under long, wood will be scarce. We carry all of the Yours is the first in his history. Shall we go back to He prevailed upon me from time to time, prior to the Mr. Grimes no doubt will receive here, as elsc- have to pass the muddy bottom that overflows part of ly, let us examine and see how the system worked. _____] not only the estate which, by the will of the year. It is hard work, but we have stout hearts. Those who now advocate the abolition of capital punand like true philosophers, thank our stars that it is ishment, talk loudly of the philanthropy of their sysnot worse. We are not the boys to complain of the tem, and of the misanthropy of the opposite. Their either of my brothers. These conveyances so made Intelligence from Fort Leavenworth to the 9th inst., What beneficial effects resulted from it? The record right. He still has the greater portion of this large has been received at St. Louis. An express had says that at the end of that period of the earth was estate. He did not originate it by Jealing in stocks. arrived from General Kearney's camp. When the filled with violence! The cutting of throats and the He has realized from its possession, thus acquired, express left he was within 130 miles of Bent's Fort, beating out of brains universally prevailed. A very more than $100,000. He absolutely refuses to give all his forces progressing rapidly and comfortably. Nine deaths had occurred among the volunteers during their progress across the prairies. Rumors were circulating among the traders and the Mexicans, to the effect that General Urrea was marching at the head of a large Mexican force for the protection of Santa despatch, and if his provision wagons kept up, he it morally one great putrid running sore. God had ning previous, as Mr. David M'Millis and his family, would not delay at Bent's Fort, but go direct on to prohibited man from inflicting capital punishment on of Clinton county, Ohio, were returning home from a

THE ARMY .- The field books show at present an army of 17,000 men on its march to Montercy, and This was the first time capital punishment was in- fast tottering to its fall. Seventeen of our most intelover as fine roads as can be imagined. The army sets flicted on any of the human species. Millions of hu- ligent citizens promptly answered that they could not out at 3 o'clock in the morning and halts at 8, making man beings were its subjects, executed at the same conscientionsly render a verdict of murder in the first 15 miles per day. It has been found, as in India, that marching by night during the hot weather is the least imprisonment for stealing one dollar from a letter. and a period instead of a comma was efroneously around the old grave yard. This is as commendable of moral instruction, and are sublime developments the opinion that "Christians are not so numerous that A sentence near the conclusion printed—"God, pable. We felt ashamed for Terre Haute, and espevisited that old grave yard.

Capital Putishment.

To the Editors of the State Sentinel : On the 27th of July a great number of the 2d and former communication on the subject of Capital Pun- minutes after the boilt was drawn from the drop."

settler. The southern boundary of the Reserve is Robinson C. Jones and Abram G. Snyder of the task. Its great importance, and the present state of worst use you can put a man to is to is to halfig him?"

govern it, and to prescribe laws for its government. first communication. right of pre-emption to not exceeding one hundred buried on the 30th. He had the consumption before also assume as true that God has a right to govern occurs. man; that he does and will exercise that right; that lands cost the government about one dollar and twenty- On the 31st, our Regiment (1st) rose early in the he has prescribed laws for his government; and that not; &c. five cents per acre, and choice locations, which can morning, and put every thing in readiness to start for he will enforce them too. For, though he may let indollars, in the very heart of the State of Indiana. The from the measles, and if they did not ride the most to a fearful retribution. He is the Lord, the King, sugar tree timber. In a few years it will be one of nearly all of the sick to ride; but they were so much and supreme laws, or he will hold us accountable, and a short time since in Wurtemburg; we find it related the finest portions of the State. How ridiculous the crowded that they were very uncomfortable. We had in due time vindicate his supremacy. I shall further in a foregon journal: idea that men should pass Indiana in seach of a home, not proceeded more than a mile along the shore of the take as admitted, that God's will concerning man,

York to New Orleans. We invite emigrants to look hearty laugh from the crowd, and the Hoosier bought The first murder that occurred in the human family morning, after we had read together the fift chapter several bottles and passed on, though it is quite pro- was committed by the second man that ever existed, of the Book of Judges, (they were devout people and bable that he reduced the quantity considerably before on the third; and they were brothers. This was the read the Bible every day,) she requested me to drive Some locofoco editor in this State, has made the he arrived at the Rio Grande. As we continued the murder of Abel by Cain. After the fact occurred, the a nail into her temple, as Jael did Sisera, as such a democracy of his county tired of his services, as we death seemed to her short and easy, and would put finding him should kill him."

1. That the blood of murder cries to God.

heaven and earth. should find him, to slay him. It was so understood before presenting himself to the authorities. by Cain then; and the rules of outlawry are the same | Gayring is now in prison; he is perfectly calm, and not because it was directly so said to him; it was a the village of Gusseastadt, where the murder was corollary of his. Nature, Cain's conscience, and the committed, left their work as soon as they heard of Lord's words, caused Cain instinctively to exclaim, the murder, and spent the day in the church, fasting 'every one that findeth me shall slay me." This fix- and praying for the soul of the departed.

ed law of murder yet exists. Every murderer instinctively fears a slayer in every one he meets. are not given, and which finite intelligencies such as his death. The letter was directed to the Coroner: we are, whose field of observation is limited to one To my Creditors ? small planet, which makes but a very insignificant portion of the universe, cannot perhaps correctly guess at, the Lord saw fit to countermand the natural law. He set a mark on Cain, lest any finding him should kill him. He first tried what you and those who stand on your side of the question, are wanting to get back to now; he prohibited capital punishment, and declared that seven-fold vengeance should be taken on avenged the blood of Abel. EXPRESS FROM THE SANTA FE EXPEDITION .- lanthropy visible, if it were really philanthropic. the most solemn pledges that he would do what was Shall we go back to it ? We will now see how this first chapter in the history of man ended. "The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence. And Violence and blood had gangrened the earth and made

Gen. Taylor has issued an order—not against the his government, and of his forbearance and long-sufpresent deluge of "cold water" at all, for he is too much of a Father Matthew man for that, but against led that that the system, instead of reforming, had King Alchohol himself! The order is one prohibiting made the whole race murderers. He had now indi- the wagon at the time, all escaping uninjured except The New York Express says: "The pasage of the all spirituous liquors from entering the mouth of the cated his forbearance and long-suffering, and proven Mr. M'M., his wife, and a little boy, who he cated his forbearance and long-suffering, and proven Corn Laws in England has some influence on our river. Under it no sutler or merchant will be allowed to carry or send any liquors up the river from this for him to vindicate some other of his attributes, and place, and all persons in Matamoras are prohibited to do himself what he had prohibited man from doing. Love one Another. The Rev. Chas. W. Denmson very low prices, for the English market. Although from selling the "creature" after the 15th inst. The He gave the race a fair trial, and they came out unthe export is not large, it is sufficient to take out of order has created quite a sensation in certain parts, iversally guilty with the exception of eight souls; the market a portion of the surplus on hand, and in as you may imagine; but it is one of the best things therefore it repented him "that he had made man on this way contributes to "prevent a decline in prices for Matamoras that could have been done-except the earth, and it grieved him at his heart." So he rious providence, he has cut me off from a Baptist burning it down. There will be a smart winding up here immediately in consequence.

pronounced this judgment of death against them: "I church, while such a man as Nathaniel Culver is allowed to remain one of the ministers in its fellows." A man named Jack Haynes, better known as Col. of the carth." The execution of this sentence though, ship." Jack Haynes, a wild harum-scarum sort of a fellow, was delayed one hundred and twenty years after if Capital Penishnent.-We think the advocates was killed on the 5th inst. by a Texan named Mc- was pronounced. At the end of that period the flood of the death punishment who were present at the the Ark-in all, eight souls.

executioner. The execution was terribly awful!

ity. There is a philosophy in history; and this por-tion of man's history is full of instruction. The au-We learn by the Terre Haute Express that the spicious circumstances under which it opened, and the Potter, and the evidence that he had previously given as their neglect of the same heretofore has been cul- of some of the attributes, and of the terrible majesty any of them can be spared for strangulation."

tion, or respited the murderer; otherwise he could not afterwards have executed the law himself, and inflicted capital punishment on a whole race for the violation of a law which did not exist, or had been abro-not repeal that law, he simply suspended its opera-

May I now enquire how in your vocabulary,-in your way of speaking, using your phraseology, this first execution, -this first infliction of capital punishment,-this destruction of a whole race by God him-[Volume VINumber 11. self, would sound! Shall we call it "legal murder?" If it was a case of murder, legal or illegal, God himself was the murderer. If murder at all, it was murder by the wholesale-murder in the superlative degree. In this case of execution, life was not extinct GENTLEMEN-Inasmuch as you have published my in the subjects of it until much more than "twenty 3d Regiments of the Indiana Volunteers succeeded in shment, and thereby intimated a willingness to have They truly "died a dreadful death." The law maker getting off the ships and landing at Brazos Santiago. the subject discussed in your extensively circulated in this case, in his wisdom, seanning the whole uniheld out to the emigrant to the West. Here is a dis- It was with pleasure that we learned that most of the and valuable paper, as promised in that communica- verse at a glance, and considering the moral bearing of Indiana, which the Miami Indians held on to with ing the Gulf; but it was with pain that we heard I consider it one of vast importance to the well therein, decided that the best use he could put man to an iron grasp, until the force of circumstances commeasles. They were strong and robust men-men weal or woe depends on the proper decision of it. I selves much wiser, though your moral horizon inwould that an abler hand than I would undertake the cludes only the State of Indiana, and say "that the

Gents-Please insert the following errata to my Sornberger, illstead of Somberger, every time it

Beareth not the sword in vain, instead of bareth And none to publish his wrongs, instead of none to ounish his wrongs, &c. Because more of the clergy-(and to their henor be spoken.)-instead of because more of them, &c. Gibes and jeers, instead of fibes and theis. S.

A WOMAN KILLED BY HER HUSBAND AT HER OWN

distance from us, the remnants of the cargo of a mount authority. These are not unreasonable postu- before the authorities at Heidenheim, and stated All points of the Reserve are of easy access to the wrecked ship. It so happened that one of the Ohio lata to ask of a community professedly christian; one calmly that he had just killed his wife. His declara-Wabash and Erie Canal, which is now certain of Regiments had started two or three hours before our that believes in God and in the Bible as a divine rebeing completed to the Ohio river in four years—the Regiment and had taken possession of the saleable velation from him. He who disputes the authority of wife," he said," as every one knows, has been sufferbondholders being obliged to complete it in that time articles and were disposing of them as fast as possible. God to prescribe laws for the government of man, ing for a long time from illness, and at times the bondholders being obliged to complete it in that time by our State Debt arrangement. The eastern end of by our State Debt arrangement. The eastern end of said a Hoosier to a Buckeye. "Twenty cents," and that the Bible contains that prescription, argues infidelity. My present object is not to combat infigure as on the southern said a Hoosier to a Buckeye. "Twenty cents," reason; she lattefly gave the all hopes of recovery; portion shall be finished, the water communication sier. "No, sir," said the Buckeye, "for I paid more will be complete, on this route, from the city of New money than that for it myself!" This brought a scriptures teach on the subject of Capital Punishment. an end to her suffering; she said she forgave me self and Capt. T. After pronouncing it basely false, he remarked that he would not suffer himself to believe that any brother! And he said, I know not: Am I my brother! And he said, What hast thou done! cause a great hemorrhage, and would make but a ther's keeper! And he said, What hast thou done! to be.) that this is a sly way of helping one's self. where a small strip of the Gulf extended to the right the ground. And now art thou cursed from the "you can close the wound, put on a clean cap, and Who wants to buy the State Sentinel office? Did we and the men began to prepare themselves to wade. earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy Direct your letter to the "State Sentinel," postage I had cut my foot with an oyster shell, while wading strength: a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in drive it luto her left temple with a hammer, but the the earth. And Cain said unto the Lord, my punish- nail was too weak, and the point, instead of entering; ment is greater than I can bear. Behold thou hast flattened itself on the bone. I then took a small driven me out this day from the face of the earth; drill, but was equally unsuccessful. My wife grew and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fu- impatient, and requested me to kill her at once with gitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come the hammer, which I accordingly did, by knocking in to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me. the skull. The body of my wife is at my house; We can assure the editor of the Express, as well as very poor camping ground. It was a low plain, slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevengrown up with berry weeds and wild grass, very fold. And the Lord set a mark on Cain, lest any a medical man, and Gayring under a strong guard. They found the body dressed, upon the bed. On the The principal items to be noticed in this case are left temple there were two wounds, and the right side of the skull was, knocked in as low down as the 2. That the murderer was driven out of the pale of temple. Beside the bed was a table, on which was a society, and declared to be out of the protection of bible, the nail, drill, and bammer alluded to. Off the ground was a basin of water, in which the murderer, 3. That this outlawry authorized every one that according to his own declaration, washed his hands to this day. Every one who finds an outlaw may convinced that he acted well in fulfilling the wishes of his wife by pulting an end to her sufferings. Some 4. This suggestion arises in the mind of Cain, but Wurtemburgh papers state that the inhabitants of The following is a copy of the letter which was 5. But at that particular time, and for reasons that found on the person of William M. Price at the time of Many of you having inquired of me how I had disposed of the large patrimonial estate to which I was entitled upon the death of my father and my brothers, I now consider myself bound to state the very truth in relation to it. About the year 1816 I became an indorsef of notes to a very large amount, and Mr. -, who had married my niece, and was the agent of my father's estate, loaned to me about eight him who took vengeance on Cain; or, in other words, thousand dollars. I was relieved of a portion of my habilities, and Mr. ---- obtained from me a con-We find no other case of murder particularly re- veyance of my own estate in fee and leasehold, as Grande, marched up the river and encamped nearly corded entil after the flood. During this period of security for his advance. He has since that advance usquito bushes about one mile from the river. Re- system prevailed, and that man was prohibited from be loaned me thirty dollars, altogether not exceeding giments from Ohio, Mississippi, Georgia and other inflicting capital punishment on the murderer. Your three thousand dollars, in addition to the original water we use from the river, and in doing this we it again? To enable us to answer that inquiry wise-death of my brother Stephen, to convey to him [Mr.

system was tried some 1600 years, which was a peri- to him, are all on record. They were absolute on the od sufficiently long in all conscience to make its phi- face of them, but he gave me in exchange for them philanthropic system truly, which led to such results! me another cent, and I fear has driven to fatal despair your unfortunate debtor.

WILLIAM M. PRICE:

KILLED BY A FALLING THEE .- The Muncie Jours God looked upon the earth, and behold it was corrupt." nal of the 22d ult. states that on the Wednesday evethe murderer, and avenging the blood of the murder- visit to their relatives in Blackford county; about ed, say, if you please, for the reformation of the mur- seven miles north of Muncie, a tree fell across the says of the Rev. N. Culver, in a recent pamphlet:

came and "all flesh died * * and every man;" Court House in this borough on Tuesday last, when Noah only remained, and they that were with him in the jury were being empaneled in the murder case then on trial, had evidence that the bloody code was time, by the same fell stroke ;-God himself was the degree, under any circumstances. In what stronger manner could they express their abhorrence of capital Thus ends the first chapter in the history of human- punishment ?- Chester (Pa.) Republican.

The "Charter Oak," noticing the execution of

The case of Cain shows, that by the law of God The Washington Union says it has prid from $20, election, as if every elector in the State had voted months. The Brown mentioned above has some remission of that crime he forfeited his life. God did of Congress: